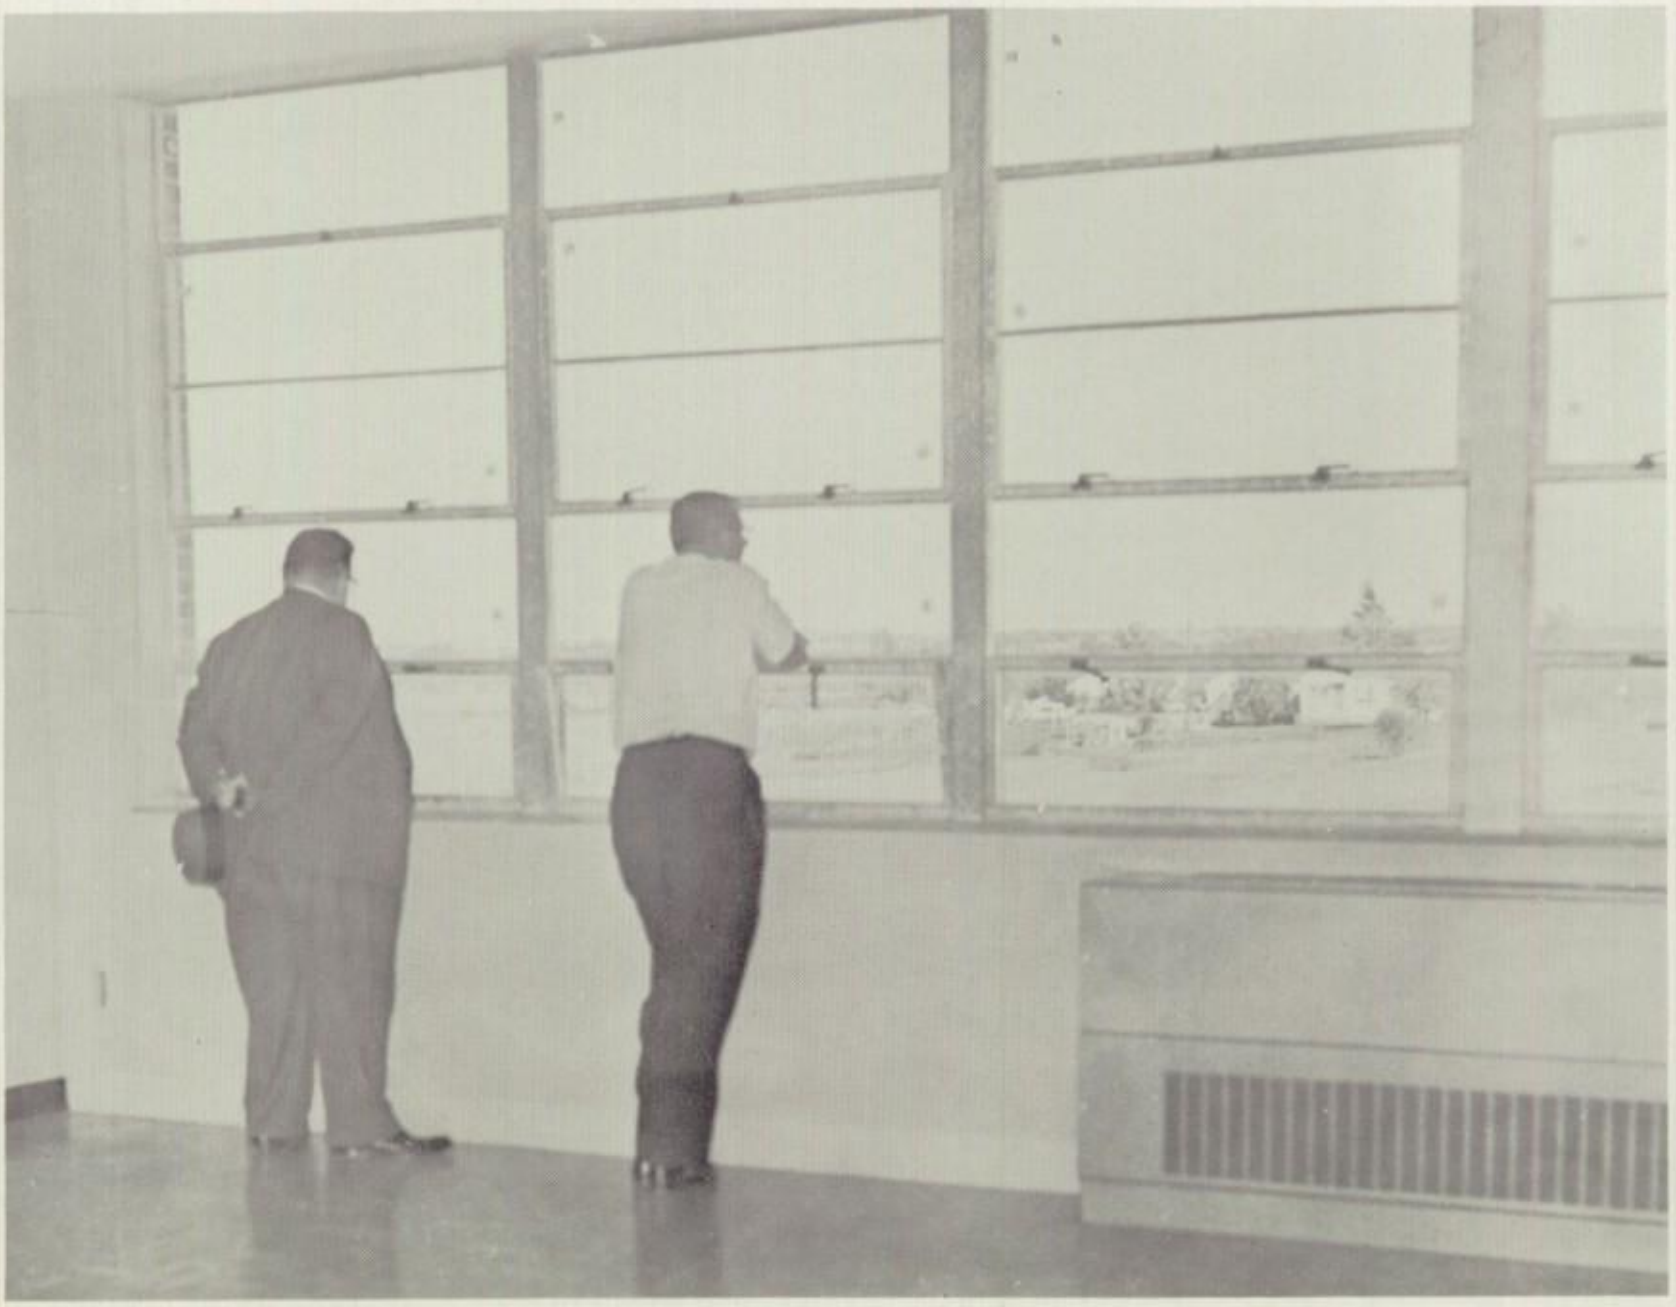
Looking To The Future



Dr. B. C. Campbell, superintendent of District No. 7 and Mr. Charles Childress, athletic director of Lee's Summit High School, gaze over the future sight of the new Lee's Summit Junior High School.

To progress means to move forward. This is the moving force behind any growth in education. Dynamic changes are taking place in the community. The impact is being put in the school system of District Number 7.

The Reflector of 1961 presents the personalities and pastimes that are contributing to the rapid progress being made by Lee's Summit Senior High School.

Administrators, teachers, and students blend their personalities to further the growth and development of the high school. Pastimes are those activities which foster a feeling of togetherness essential to a forward moving institution.

Looking toward a golden future, Lee's Summit High School is ready to meet the challenge.

Harvey Oberweather and Rev. E. O. Smith, President of the A.F.S. Chapter of Lee's Summit, greet one of the chaperons upon arrival.

Lee's Summit was host to thirty-seven foreign exchange students over the fourth of July weekend. One of the highlights of their stay with us was a talent show presented by the members of the American Field Service. The students especially enjoyed their stay in Lee's Summit because of some of the parties the host families gave.

In Summertime Play

It was hard to believe that this was the way our upstairs looked when school started.

Besides our friendly foreign guests there was early football practice and the arrival of our foreign exchange student, Regina Allenberg, on August 22.

Members of the Reflector staff attended Missouri University to learn Reflector business and a little monkey business, too, as pictured here.

Guiding Per

DR. BERNARD C. CAMPBELL, Superintendent of Schools

Supplying the intelligent and active guidance necessary to coordinate Reorganized School District Number 7 into an efficient, well-knit unit is superintendent of schools, Dr. Bernard C. Campbell. Among his duties are studying and estimating what facilities and equipment will be needed in the future, evaluating and balancing budgets, carrying out the policies of the Board of Education, and serving as "public relations" man in the community. With these and the new responsibilities that will come with the rapid growth of our school, Dr. Campbell is a busy man.

ROCKMAN, Principal

DR. WILLIAM J. UNDERWOOD, Assistant Superintendent

Assisting Dr. Campbell in the administration of the district is Dr. William J. Underwood. His duties include textbook selection, curricular revision, and study of teaching methods. He also aids Dr. Campbell in the interviewing of prospective teachers for District Number 7.

Overseeing the operation of our school, is Mr. James T. Brockman, Principal. It is his job to administer the policies and plans devised by the Board of Education and the superintendents. While always guarding the learning process, Mr. Brockman is deeply respected by all the students for his fairness and open mind.

Efficient,

Mrs. Davis aids Donna Bratton and Kerrelyn Starr.

Secretaries are the efficient underlying force in every business. In the business of education, they are doubly important. Among the varied duties of Mrs. Marcia Miller, secretary to Mr. Brockman, Mrs. Betty Davis, attendance clerk, and Mrs. Mary Gibson, secretary to Mr. Garrett, are keeping accurate attendance records, taking care of official financial records for school organizations, correspondence, and the typing of the daily bulletin.

Their duties extend beyond these limits for their services are offered to the individual. The friendly attitudes of the school secretaries put everyone at ease and let the student body know what friends they are to all.

Mrs. Mary Winburn

School is "big business." Just as business executives need competant secretaries, so does Dr. Campbell, our school superintendent, in his task of running the business of the school. Mrs. Helen Shiddell, as secretary, watches over the operation of the school system.

Large amounts of money are necessary to operate a school district. Overseeing the financial affairs and paying the bills of the district is Mrs. Virginia Patton, treasurer for the Board of Education.

The clerical work involved in classroom instruction and curricular planning is great. Such work keeps Mrs. Mary Winburn, secretary to Dr. Underwood, assistant superintendent, busy.

Office assistants, who play a significant part in fulfilling the duties of the secretarial branch of the administration, must be friendly, courteous, and dependable. Their jobs range from running errands for the secretaries, to collecting and recording attendance data. They are even asked, on occasion, to assume the duties of school nurse in patching skinned knees and treating severe headaches.

The secretaries and the school administration are truly indebted to these diligent workers.

Donna Hammond finds time to sneak in a little homework during her sixth hour office period.

FRESHMEN

Rand McQuin, Stan Slaughter, Gail Patterson, Susan Wilson

With 264 members, the largest class in the history of our school, the freshmen entered into a new world last September. The class of 1964 made a fast adjustment to it, however, and soon found their place in school life.

The spirit of Homecoming was depicted in the freshman float, "Let's Pull For a Victory," a robin pulling on a worm. The freshmen also sponsored the annual Valentine's Dance in February.

Officers, Rand McQuinn, president; Stan Slaughter, vice-president; Susan Wilson, secretary; and Gail Patterson, treasurer, were elected at the first class meeting of the year. Student Council representatives from the freshman class were Mary Margaret Browning, Susan Wilson, Rand McQuinn, and Stan Slaughter.

Through their first year in high school the freshmen have made a significant beginning toward the advancement of Lee's Summit High School.

SOPHOMORES

Tom Boten, Carol Schwindler, Janet Tapscott, Judy Barnes.

In their second year of school, the sophomores made a good record. They began the year by winning first place with their float, "Tigers Eat Cat," in the Homecoming parade. One project of which they could be proud was the Harvest Dance in the fall.

Another highlight of 1960 was the initiation of the sophomore girls into the Pep Club. Somewhat frightened and more than a little funny, they survived their initiation.

Sophomores elected as their class officers Judy Barnes, president; Tom Boten, vice-president; Carol Schwindler, secretary; and Janet Tapscott, treasurer. Representatives on the Student Council were John McKee, Tom Boten, Judy Barnes, and Carol Schwindler. There were 195 sophomores this year, an increase in membership.

Sophomores had as their sponsors this year Mrs. Katheryn Place, and Miss Margaret Wiltsee, Mr. Francis Titus, Miss Mary Faye Wilson, Mrs. Itrice Eubanks, Mr. Ivan Slaughter, Mr. Anderson Long, Mr. William Clark, and Mrs. Carolyn Mills.

Building upon their record as freshmen, the sophomores have progressed toward the achievement of a greater Lee's Summit High School.

JUNIORS

Busily engaged in the activities of their junior year, the class of 1962, began with the election of officers, Randy Woods, president; Gene Clark, vice-president; Carol Boten, secretary; and Jim Keil, treasurer. Student Council representatives were Mary Kate Childers, Carol Ann Browning, Randy Woods, and Jim Keil.

The junior entry into the Homecoming Parade, "Kick-to-Victory," was a giant football about to be kicked by a shoe. A second event in a junior's life was the arrival of the class rings.

Twenty-eight juniors were rewarded for their work in high school by their induction into the National Honor Society at the tap assembly in November.

Everyone eagerly awaited the selection of the cast members for the junior play. Juniors spent many hours of work and fun on it.

Highlight of the year came with the Junior-Senior Prom. The evening was a memorable one for those who attended. The hard work of the juniors was well worth it.

Looking to the future, the juniors have proved themselves capable of assuming their responsibilities as seniors next year.

FOOTBALL

Finishing the season with a record of two wins, six losses and one tie, everyone was very proud of the Tiger football team even though their record was not the best. Losing the first game to a powerful Clinton team, the Tigers bounced back with Suburban Conference victories over Park Hill and Ruskin.

Following the Ruskin game, injuries hampered the team throughout the remainder of the season and Lee's Summit was only able to salvage a tie with Blue Springs on Homecoming, October 14. The loss of Otis Dyke, Gene Smith, and Gary Duncan for the season was certainly felt by the Tigers. This year's team was a hard working group with a lot of spirit. They tried their best at all times and Coach Diekmann and Coach Eskew certainly have high hopes for next year's team. There are many returning lettermen and the future really looks bright for our Tiger football team.

Basketball

This year the Tigers finished their '60-'61 season with a won-lost record of 9 wins, 17 losses. In previous years the Tigers' record has been better, but Coach Francis Titus has remarked that this year's "Tiger Team" is the youngest team he has coached. The won-lost record of a team does not always show its potential and desire. This year the Tigers have shown both hustle and desire throughout the season.

TRACK

In the past two years three from Lee's Summit have made All-State track team. In 1959 we won first place in the Kansas City Suburban Conference. Last year we were second only to Grandview. This year, with returning lettermen, our chances look very good for the championship in '61.

Although individual achievement is of great importance, the track team must work together as one to win the meet.

The running events included the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, the quarter mile, the half mile and mile relays. The field events included pole vaulting, high and low hurdles, broad jump, high jump, shot-put, and throwing the discus.

As the Reflector goes to press, we plan to open our season with the Missouri State Indoor Track Meet and close the season with the Missouri State Outdoor Track Meet. These meets are held at Columbia, Missouri, and those who attend the two-day outdoor track meet in May spend one night at Columbia. Besides the State Track Meets, we will participate in dual meets, and invitational meets.

TUMBLING TEAM

The tumbling team, organized the second semester this year, is a brand new group in our school. Under the guidance of Coach Parker, the thirteen members, both boys and girls, practice after school on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays. Co-educational tumbling is a new phase in physical education in our area. The group has performed several times this year at the half time of basketball games.

Despite all the scrapes and bruises the tumblers have received, they have mastered new stunts, acquired better physical coordination, and made new friends.

What We Practice

"A" VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Girls' Intramurals is for fun and development. By participating in the sports program, girls develop not only skills, but also poise, good posture habits, co-operation, teamwork, responsibility and leadership characteristics. There is a place in intramurals for anyone who is interested.

This year the "A" volleyball team participated in several Play Days. They won first place in the Play Day sponsored by Liberty High School. A "B" team also participated in a Sports Day sponsored by Central Missouri State College physical education department.

To Stimulate School

Students taking part in the Co-operative Education program are given an opportunity to receive on-the-job experience before entering the business world.

Part of their routine is to attend eight o'clock classes and earn extra money on part-time jobs.

Each Christmas the C.O.E. class gives food and clothing to a needy family. In the spring, an employer-employee banquet, honoring the employers, is held in appreciation of the part they play in this co-operative program.

MAJORETTES
Mary Jo Jones, Donna Jean Kelly, Franny Anderson, Leroy Skinner, Drum Major, Marie Williams, Betty Ann Jackson, Verna Brummett.

One of the many thrills for this group which they will long remember was leading their favorite band in the American Royal Parade.

They performed at half time at all home games during football season, and led the band in the Homecoming parade. Following a group performance at Homecoming, Betty Jackson and Leroy Skinner, entertained the audience with a fire-twirling routine.

The majorettes and band march through Lee's Summit during the Homecoming parade.

Spring found our band performing in the annual spring concert and headed for the district music contest at Central Missouri State College with its sights set on going to state contest.

New uniforms encouraged the band members to extra work this year, as they attended band clinics, concerts, and parades. The marching band participated in the American Royal Parade. The concert band attended clinics at Liberty, Chillicothe, and Warrensburg, with concerts at Grandview, Liberty, and Lee's Summit.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Girls' Glee Club is one of the singing groups in our school. These girls sing for enjoyment and in preparation for membership in the Mixed Chorus.

The organization performed as a group at the Christmas Concert and the Spring Concert.

At the first part of the year the girls learned the skills of music and as the year progressed they acquired a variety of songs in their repertoire.

MODERN CHOIR

A new organization in our school this year, the Modern Choir or "Mod Cho," has been active on civic and other occasions. It is a group of approximately thirty-five members, working to improve the Mixed Chorus and also to participate in events which would be difficult for the full chorus to attend.

The group's first performances were at the Lion's Club shows this November. Later, at a vocal clinic at Park Hill, they sang again.

The Pep Band has continued to encourage school spirit during its second year. There are approximately twenty members in the Pep Band this year. The students who are interested in other types of music derive great enjoyment from it as well as supporting the basketball team.

The members of the Pep Band wear black shirts and slacks or skirts. The emblem of the Pep Band is a gold tiger head with an inlaid white trumpet.

The Pep Band was present at all conference basketball games. They were also appreciated by the student body at the pep assemblies.

DANCE BAND

A great asset to our school is the newly established dance band. Its members are a representative group from the High School band.

Some of its outstanding accomplishments during this school year are performing for the Lion's Club Variety Show and the Lee's Summit High School Band Carnival.

Contest Winners

In the state contest for instrumental solos, the winners were Howard McCracken, Ronald Clawson, and Sylvia Swain.

Winners of the state vocal contest were Wanda McConnell, Janet Bergen, and Larry Ferguson.

The Future Farmers of America always take an active part in the promotion of the American Royal Livestock Show which is held in Kansas City.

They work in cooperation with the Missouri Conservation Commission and participate in a Corn Growing Contest which is sponsored by a major seed company.

Members of the Future Farmers of America attend a national convention. The F.F.A. Summer Camp is another annual activity.

They present a Safety Program in cooperation with feed stores and machinery dealers.

The Future Farmers of America enter contests on the district and state levels for the various skills of livestock judging, identifications of field crops, and the judging of soils.

During the year they take field trips to see projects completed by members.

The annual hayride is another of their activities. To celebrate National F.F.A. Week, displays are set up in windows of downtown stores.

At the Parent and Son Banquet, all awards are presented for the achievements of the previous year.

The annual dance sponsored by the Future Farmers of America is the Barnwarming Dance. They select a queen who is crowned the evening of the dance.

We Enjoyed Study, Work, And Fun

After a pep assembly, Mr. Brockman teams up with the cheerleaders--Joy Jones, Harriet Fillmore, Elizabeth Ralston, Judy Fessler, Mary Kate Childers, and Marsha Hewitt--to form a new squad.

The Future Homemakers of America is a worth-while organization as its purposes most clearly outline. The F.H.A. is designed to create young homemakers. This program is made more interesting as its teachings are as enjoyable as they are enlightening.

Its ideals for upcoming homemakers are to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of homemaking and to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership. The F.H.A. tries to encourage democracy in home and community life and promote international good will. The organization provides wholesome individual and group recreation and furthers interest in home economics.

The purpose of the Future Teachers of America Club is to help the members decide whether they have the potential for teaching. By participating in various activities, the members can decide whether they would enjoy the career of teaching.

One of the clubs' most anticipated activities is visiting the schools in our district. Here they can observe the various methods of teaching.

One of the main projects of the year was adopting two needy families for Christmas and giving them food, clothing, and other helpful items. This action gave each a wonderful Christmas spirit.

Maintaining high grades is stressed frequently and members are urged to take advantage of the newly adopted point system. Each member receives points for semester grades, meetings attended, and helping teachers grade papers.

The members have also enjoyed a Christmas party, Mrs. Van Hook's films of Europe, Education Day at Warrensburg, and many other activities connected with the teaching profession.

SPANISH CLUB

President . . . . . Sue Miller
Vice-President . . . . . Kay Buchanan
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . Julia May

The Spanish Club has been reorganized this year under the sponsorship of Mrs. Shirck, the Spanish teacher. The club is well on its way to being one of the larger clubs in the school since it already has a membership of approximately fifty students. The main project of the club this year has been the forming of a constitution. The organization also entered a float in the Homecoming parade. "Hats off to the Tigers" was the theme of the float.

Kerrelyn Starr, who visited Mexico during the Christmas holidays, presented a very interesting program based on her experiences in Mexico.

LIBRARY

Good student librarians develop habits of promptness, dependability, neatness, co-operation, and accuracy. Their duties include circulating books, placing cards in returned books, shelving books, filing and sorting cards, giving aid and advice to students, and helpful services rendered by our library staff.

Twenty boys and girls make up the library staff this year. They participate voluntarily, their reward being the feeling that they have done their work faithfully and accurately.

Many long hours were spent by the debate teams in preparation for the various tournaments that they participated in this year. The teams competed in tournaments at William Chrisman, West Plains, Sedalia Smith-Cotton, and the district tournament. They brought home many honors to our high school.

The national question for the year was, "Resolved: That the United Nations should be significantly strengthened."

The members were versatile in that they not only debated but were also entered in individual events.

HI-LIFE STAFF

Co-Editors . . . . . Linda Patterson, Ed Nixon
Assistant Editor . . . . . Brenda Buck
Circulation Manager . . . . . Glenda Harris

The Hi-Life is the school newspaper designed to preview and to recapture the events of the school year as they pass in succession.

It capitalizes on the honors and fine characteristics of the students while it subtly comments on those points needing correction.

Its main purpose is to provide a detailed record of school activities for one's enjoyment now and in the years to come.

This year the Hi-Life published a senior edition which contained information about the senior class colors, flowers, poem, and motto. It contained the seniors' wills and prophesies. It "Hi" lighted the activities of the seniors and individual honors received by them. Another special issue was dedicated to the royal faculty's King and Queen.

Accomplishment Is Their Reward.

The year's work on the Reflector for 1961 was started in the summer when seventeen members of the staff and Mrs. Place, our new sponsor, attended the publications workshop in Columbia, Missouri.

While at the workshop the staff acquired many new ideas which went into the production of the 1961 Reflector.

The work on the Reflector is divided into three deadlines which are met on certain dates. On these dates copy and pictures are sent to the printer for publication.

In March the Golddigger's Ball was sponsored by the Reflector staff. At this dance the girls asked the boys and they took over all the responsibilities which the boys usually hold. To climax the ball, the Yearbook Queen was crowned after a few weeks of suspense.

In the spring the annual publications banquet was held. Staff members enjoyed a sneak preview of the 1961 Reflector.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President . . . . . Harvey Oberweather
Vice-President . . . . . Gene Smith
Secretary . . . . . Nancy Holland
Treasurer . . . . . Kerrelyn Starr

Members of the Student Council meet on alternate Tuesdays to revise and regulate many student activities. Each member serves on at least one committee which keeps him quite busy most of the time. The council sponsors a foreign student each year and finances a telephone call to the student's home country as a Christmas gift.

They annually sponsor a spaghetti dinner from which the proceeds help finance school improvements. Our Student Council participates in both district and state Student Council activities. The junior representatives attended the state Student Council meeting in Crystal City, Missouri this spring.

ROW FOUR: Gene Clark, Randy Woods, Jerry Moulton, Wade Davis, David Bratton, Howard McCracken, Joyce McDonald.

National Honor Society

The first important National Honor Society activity of the year was the Tap Assembly. At this assembly, which was attended by the entire student body, the new members from the junior class were presented for membership into the National Honor Society. A member must possess each of the four qualities necessary for membership--character, service, leadership, and scholarship. This year Sue Jackson spoke on character; Donna Bailey, service; Charles Martin, leadership; and Charles Loeffler, scholarship.

The outstanding program sponsored by the National Honor Society was the Christmas candle-lighting assembly. It was unique in that no one talks from the time he is dismissed for the assembly until he has left the school.

Every spring a banquet is held for the members, which is its final event of the year.

The Board Of Education

Mr. Lloyd Boten; Mr. E. W. Williams; Mr. Herbert Whiting; Mr. Owen Covington; Dr. Clint L. Miller, Vice President; Mr. E. M. Copeland, President; Dr. Bernard C. Campbell, Superintendent of Schools; Mrs. Helen B. Shiddell, Secretary.

Legal governing body of the school district is the Board of Education, composed of six members, serving without pay, who are elected by the voters for terms of three years. The board establishes the general organization and policies under which the school system operates. Responsibilities for carrying out the policies of the Board of Education rests upon the administration and teaching staff of the school system. In a growing community such as District #7, the school board spends many hours studying school buildings and planning the educational program for more than 3200 boys and girls.

Next week this band has to get organized!

"We can make ourselves beautiful, too!" explained Steve Sweaney and Richard Scott during psychology class.

They Provide

Mrs. Lillian Ewing, cafeteria manager, provides nutritious meals. This requires thoughtful planning and careful budgeting. Her staff serves over three hundred meals every day in the high school.

Mrs. Donna Stone, cafeteria cashier, is part-time secretary to Mrs. Ewing. She is cheerful and receives much of the "dough."

Our Meals

Our cooks are Mrs. Cravens, Mrs. Buxton, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Cusick, Mrs. Martin, and Mrs. Whitworth.

Cooking in a high school cafeteria is big business. It is not as simple as cooking for a family. Ingredients are measured by the pound and gallon instead of by the cup and teaspoon. Hot lunches provide the student with energy to complete the school day.

Mr. Loren Havens, Mr. Cecil Rouse, Mr. Roy Inman, and David Dyer are responsible for keeping our building neat and attractive at all times.

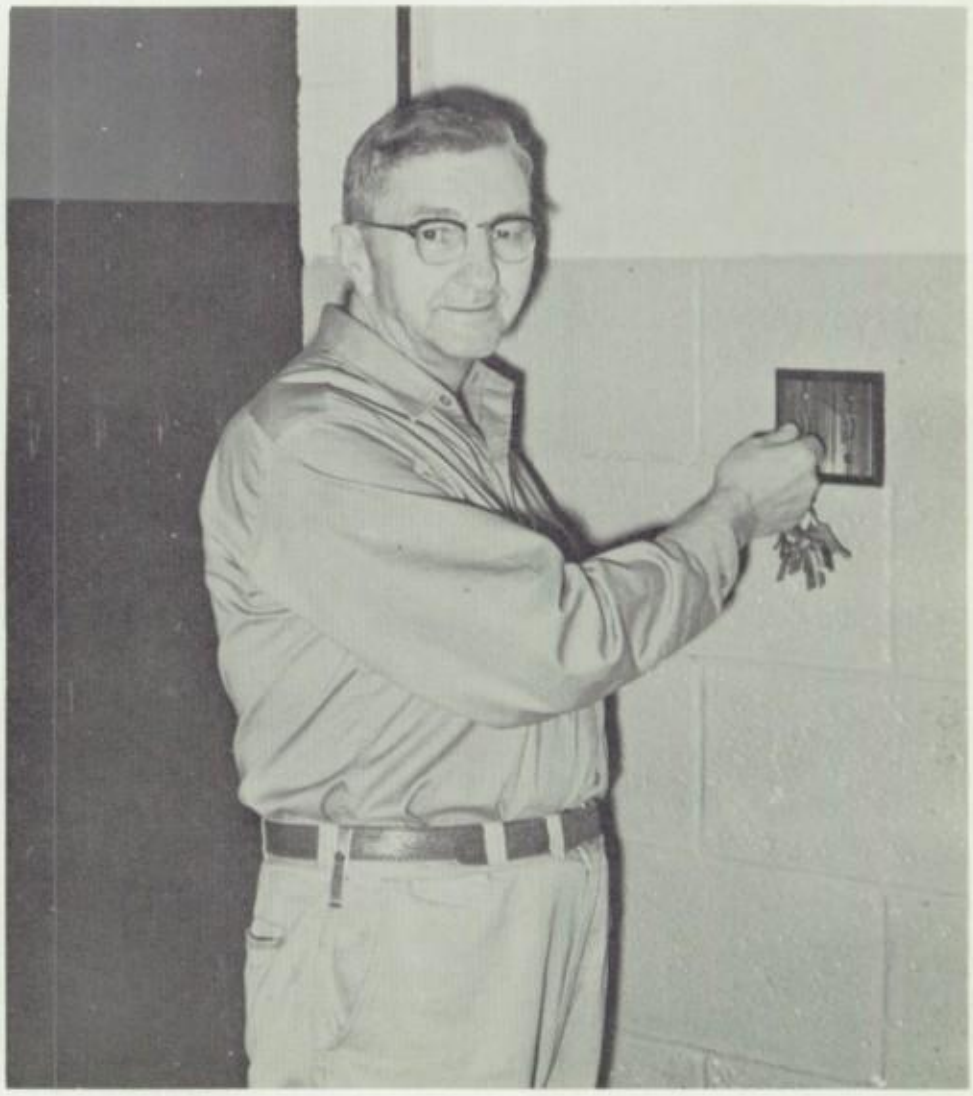
Keep Us Going

Cecil Rouse locks the cafeteria to keep away midnight snackers.

Mr. Havens, our day man, takes care of the heating plant, the operations of our lockers, and the daily sweeping. Our night custodian, Mr. Rouse, comes after school to prepare the building for our next school day. At 9:00 P.M., Mr. Inman arrives and continues with the cleaning process. After school David Dyer, a senior, assists Mr. Rouse with his evening duties.

Loren Havens checks to see if lights are properly working.



NANCY ARDELL AHERN

Nancy is enthusiastic about publications. She was on the Hi-Life Staff her junior year and a photographer for the Reflector her junior and senior years. Nancy is also in the Pep Club. She enjoys swimming and water skiing in the summer, and she takes a few pictures on the side. The Lake Lotawana Ski Club takes up some of her time along with writing her column "Teen Topics" for the Lotawana News. Nancy plans to attend college after graduation.

GARY WAYNE AHERN

For the past four years Gary has been an active school citizen. He sang in the A Cappella and modern choirs, and participated in the chorus. He attended a state music contest in Columbia his junior year. Gary has also been interested in basketball, and he has played "B" team basketball his freshman, sophomore, and junior years. He plans to attend college next fall.

EVA-REGINA ALLENBERG

Regina is an American Field Service student from Gelsenkirchen, West Germany. She arrived here August 22, and she will remain until the end of June. At her school in Germany, she was on the Student Council for three years. In our school she is in the National Honor Society, the Pep Club, and Student Council. She was the queen of the Band Carnival. Regina still has six months of school to complete before she can graduate from her school. Regina hopes to become a commercial artist.

KAREN LEE ARNOLD

Karen has made for herself a commendable record of her four years in high school. As a member of the publications staff she worked on the staff as the freshman editor. Karen has also been an outstanding member of the Future Teachers of America, the National Honor Society, and the Latin and Pep Clubs. She is planning to attend college in the fall.

Senior Year Is

SAMUEL EDGAR ALLENBAUGH

During Sammy's four years in high school, he has most enjoyed working in the fields of music and art. His freshman year he was in the Boys' Glee Club, and for the past three years he has been in the school choir. His interest in the art field has led him to making things with his hands. Although Sammy does not plan to attend college he does want to further his educatior in art.

Senior Snaps And

Even seniors have to ride the school bus as shown by Marc Pharr and John Davis.

Mrs. Williams, Nancy Holland, and Mr. Havens observe a symbol of Christmas time--Santa Claus.

Judy Fessler, Linda Patterson, Julia May, and Dwayne Martin serve as speakers; Gary Case, Paul Larsen, and Randy Winburn represent the three wise men; and Sharon Gippner portrays Mary in the Christmas Candlelighting Service presented by the National Honor Society.

Senior Leaders

SENIOR CLASS

Four years ago the class of 1961 began its journey through Lee's Summit High School. As freshmen, the class, led by Gene Smith, the class president, saw its hopes of winning first place in the homecoming float contest drowned out by the weather; but not being easily discouraged, they retaliated with a memorable success in the form of the St. Valentine's Dance.

As sophomores, the class had its chance to make up for the previous year's homecoming rainout and did so by winning first place in the float contest with the theme of "Let's Grind 'Em Up," Of course, the Pep Club initiates underwent the usual "punishment" and became full-fledged Pep Club members. In addition, the class entertained the student body with an outstanding Harvest Dance.

For the third consecutive year, class president, Gene Smith, aptly led the class to honor and achievement as the juniors made it two years in a row by again winning the homecoming float contest with "Let's Hatch a Victory" as the theme. There were class rings, the junior class play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings," and the long awaited induction into the National Honor Society for forty-one members of the class. Naturally, the highlight of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom.

As seniors, the homecoming float "Clean 'Em Up Tigers" managed a second place showing. Regina Allenberg, foreign exchange student from Germany, joined the class. Seniors presented the Christmas Dance, and the senior skits. Finally came graduation and with it the realization that the seniors no longer were, but had been, the Seniors of 1961.

Immortality o'ersweeps all pains, all tears, all time, all fears, and peals, like the eternal thunder of the deep, into my ears this truth: Thou livest forever!

Everyone wants to be proud of his school, to feel a just pride in belonging, and a sense of satisfaction in his school's activities. Lee's Summit students have this because of the fine faculty, student body, and facilities that are present. No one needs to boast of these things but, no doubt, they can be felt in the heart and remembered most clearly at the close of high school years.

Personalities, pastimes, and progress is more than the theme for the '60-'61 annual. It is the symbol of a year's work and enjoyment with a wonderful student body and faculty that have combined these three elements to create one more happy, successful year for everyone who attends Lee's Summit Senior High School.
